'PRARAMBH' for First Year Students organized by IQAC

'PRARAMBH' is an orientation program conducted by the IQAC of the college. The purpose of conducting 'PRARAMBH' every year for the first year students is to provide them with a complete manual of the code and conduct that the students have to adhere to in the campus. This induction program is conducted annually after the completion of the First Year admission process. The students assembled on the college auditorium where the Principal, the Heads of the Department outline to students the mode of working followed in the college. Students are given a detailed instruction on the expected behavioural conduct and the rules and regulation they need to adhere to for the smooth functioning of the campus. Instructions are given on the following areas

- Punctuality
- Discipline
- Wearing ID Cards
- Uniform
- Attendance
- Relevance of Continuous Evaluation Assessments
- Clean Campus
- Mobile Free Campus
- Drug abuse
- Anti Ragging Awareness
- Use of ICT enabled facilities
- Silence and Cleanliness in the campus

Classes are handled by experts from various areas.
